

AGREEMENT ON THE AFFILIATION OF THE FACULTY OF LAW, UNIVERSITY OF BUCHAREST TO THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT BAR ASSOCIATION

The Faculty of Law of the University of Bucharest and the International Criminal Court Bar Association (hereinafter “the ICCBA”), together referred to as “The Parties”,

Whereas the Parties consider that their respective objectives are fully consistent and concur in promoting competence and outreach about the activities and functioning of the ICC, knowledge, competence and outreach about the rights of victims, defendants, witnesses and Counsel and their support staff before the ICC, and the promotion and protection of these rights and of the independence of Counsel and their support staff before the ICC;

Whereas Article 40 of the ICCBA Constitution provides that other associations may be affiliated with the ICCBA;

Whereas the “ICCBA Procedure Regarding Affiliations” of 27 April 2017 (hereinafter “the Procedure”) welcomes the affiliation of all national Bars established under the domestic law of each country, be it a State Party to the Rome Statute or not, as well as national, regional and international bars and associations of Counsel;

Whereas the Faculty of Law has expressed its interest in becoming affiliated to the ICCBA under Article 40 of its Constitution;

Whereas, the Executive Council of the ICCBA unanimously welcomed the affiliation of the Faculty of Law pursuant to section 4(2) of the Procedure;

HEREBY AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

Article 1

By entering the present Agreement, the Faculty of Law is affiliated to the ICCBA pursuant to Article 40 of the ICCBA Constitution.

Article 2

The purpose of the Faculty of Law affiliation to the ICCBA is to establish closer mutual bonds between the Parties. The Parties endeavour to pursue together the shared goal of promoting in the Faculty of Law the highest standards of ethics and competence for Counsel, the independence of the legal profession, the resolution of legal, administrative and disciplinary issues impacting on Counsel, the principles of fair trial and equality of arms and respect for internationally recognized human rights and fundamental freedoms in the context of the ICC.

Article 3

The ICCBA Executive Council will rely on the Faculty of Law to provide support for and advice on the activities of the ICCBA and may seek, where it deems appropriate, advice on issues of common interest and any other form of relevant assistance or collaboration. In particular, the ICCBA Executive Council will rely on the Faculty of Law to assist, facilitate, or otherwise support its outreach activities, through the ICCBA Executive Council, or the ICCBA Regional Focal Points, in all countries, be they States Parties to the Rome Statute or not, and before all relevant regional organizations.

Article 4

The ICCBA Executive Council will also rely on the Faculty of Law to disseminate information about the role of the International Criminal Court Bar Association and the role of counsel before the ICC. The ICCBA will provide materials in which it will be explained the application process for the list of counsel before the ICC and the explanation may be published on the Faculty of Law website.

Article 5

Whenever possible or otherwise considered appropriate, the Faculty of Law and the ICCBA will invite each other's representatives to their major events, seminars, trainings and general assembly meetings in order to maintain and enhance the mutual bonds between the parties. Unless agreed otherwise, the inviting Party will not bear the costs for the attendance, travel and accommodation of the other Party's representatives.

Article 6

The Faculty of Law will be referred to as an Affiliated Association on the ICCBA Website.

Article 7

The Faculty of Law is free to publish this agreement on its website or to disseminate information relating to this Agreement in any way it deems appropriate in order to achieve the purpose of the present Agreement.

Article 8

The present Agreement remains in force until the Faculty of Law expressly withdraws its affiliation by letter to the ICCBA President or Secretary, or until a majority of the ICCBA Executive Council decides to withdraw the status of affiliated association from the Faculty of Law, pursuant to section 4(4) of the Procedure.

Article 9
